IP DAY in Chicago

DATE October 21, 2004

TIME 9:00 am – 4:30 pm
Reception 4:45 pm

PLACE Loyola University Chicago
Rubloff Auditorium
25 East Pearson Street

This is an exceptional program for IP practitioners, corporate counsel, students and educators. It provides a unique opportunity to learn about issues of importance to your practice and your clients.

This one day program will feature government officials from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and the Copyright Office, Judges from the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and the U.S. District Court, and a corporate executive. They will share their perspectives on current issues, legal developments, recent decisions and future trends in IP.

Because seating is limited, we encourage your prompt registration for this event.

The Chicago Intellectual Property Alliance (CIPA)

CIPA is a not for profit entity that identifies and promotes Chicago, the Midwest and its committed intellectual property practitioners, law schools, associations and businesses as the Intellectual Property Center for new ideas, programs and education.
